

Membership Levels & Benefits

Whether you are a landowner, land manager, licensed forester, environmental consultant, biologist, or a concerned civilian, Calforests speaks out on issues that directly affect policies and practices concerning forest and natural resources management, sustainability and health. Membership with Calforests can provide you with many benefits to keep you abreast of key issues facing the industry.

---

Individual Membership includes: Annual Cost: $200

- Association Event Invites: Receive invitations to all association events including annual meetings, regional receptions and more.
- Member Event Discount: Receive membership discounts to key events.
- Store Discount: Receive a 25% discount on the association products including hats, bags, pins and more.
- Calforests E-News: Association electronic newsletter providing updates, articles and events happening in the forestry sector.

Standard Membership includes: Annual Cost: $500

- All benefits listed above
- Annual Report: Our annual report is a comprehensive report on the association's activities throughout the past year.
- Association Directory: A directory of membership and state and federal contacts. The directory gives key contact information in one convenient booklet.
- Forest Foundation Publication: Highlights current topics written by a number of authors providing exclusive content.

Elite Membership includes: Annual Cost: $1,000

- All benefits listed above
- The Calforests Report: A confidential update on regulatory activities affecting your business.
- Daily Clips: A clip service sent each morning on important news, including top stories affecting your business and the industry.

Premier Membership includes: Annual Cost: $2,000

- All benefits listed above
- Staff Support: Staff assistance per members request, including regulatory agencies, traditional and social media issues as well as partnership relations.